MAX TRUEX MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Max Truex was a graduate of Warsaw High School who set state and national records in the mile run as a senior. Max went on to compete at the 1960 Olympics in the 10,000 meter run. He was awarded Warsaw's Man of the Year in 1960 at the age of 24. He remains the youngest individual to ever win the award. After graduating from college, he practiced law in southern California and later moved to Boston. Friends and family contributed funds to establish the Max Truex Scholarship Fund as a memorial to Max.
