COVID-19 Recovery Grant Helps Keep the Wheel Turning

The Wagon Wheel Center for the Arts has been the centerpiece of entertainment and performing arts education in Kosciusko County for more than 60 years, but 2020 is sure to go down in the history books as one of the theater's most challenging years on record.

Performing arts organizations across the world have faced unprecedented shutdowns since COVID-19 restrictions began to go into effect last Spring, and the struggles faced by Wagon Wheel Executive Director Jay Michaels and his team were no exception. "2020 was nothing but pivoting," he said. "I did more pivoting in the last year than I ever did playing basketball!"

Serve Our Local Students

Do you love to see people reach their potential? Do you want to help support students in our community? If so, volunteering on a scholarship review committee might be a rewarding opportunity for you.

Kosciusko County Community Foundation provides nearly 400 scholarships to local students each year, awarding more than $540,000 for continued education. It is a major undertaking to review such a large volume of applications. The Community Foundation relies on the support of 200 volunteers to review the applications and make recommendations on scholarship awards. READ MORE
