Foundation Directory (Candid)

Candid maintains a large database of funders across the United States called the Foundation Directory. Nonprofits can pay a monthly subscription to access this database here:
<https://fconline.foundationcenter.org/>

The Allen County Public Library (ACPL) maintains a subscription to Foundation Directory that is freely accessible to patrons. While users do not have to hold an ACPL library card or be an Allen County resident to access the database, it is only available in person at their Fort Wayne location.

Please note, Foundation Directory does not necessarily indicate which foundations accept applications or how to apply for funding; however, it provides in-depth tools to understand the grantmaking history and potential funding priorities and geographical area of each funder.
